

TECHNICAL CORNER

Stripe Payment Processor

Earlier this month FDM4 sent out a communication regarding our interest in partnering with Stripe as a Payment Processor as they offer better rates to each of our Customers, ease of integration for ACH transactions, and processing of international credit cards. Analyst firm IDC interviewed Stripe customers and surveyed hundreds of organizations around the world and have reported on their cost and benefits before and after deploying online payments processing operations with Stripe.

Decoration

The FDM4 Decoration Redesign is on track for a December 2018 release including production scheduling. Here are a few features we are working on to enhance the Decoration Module. Decoration charges can be rolled into each line item price. We now store multiple art records contained in a single design which can be applied to multiple items on an order. Production scheduling now tracks work orders for both internal and external vendors to ensure on time delivery.

TC8000 RF Scanner

FDM4 is working hard to provide our clients with affordable options for RF Scanners for our new browser-based WMS offering. Since pricing is based on configuration of this module, reach out to us today to find out how we can configure the TC8000 to suit your budget.
